

BECOME A VOLUNTEER

It's easy to feel that you can't make the difference when it comes to solving world problems like poverty. Circles provides a practical way to get involved and help families learn to eliminate debt, go back to school, and overcome the challenges that poverty brings, taking us one step further toward achieving that goal.

Ways to Volunteer with Us

#1

Become a Ally

- Befriend a Circles Leader
- Offer emotional support as needed
- Help Circle Leaders clarify their goals and identify incremental steps to reach each goal
- Submit and pass a criminal background check

#2

Join in a Team

- Community Team: meets weekly to help with setup and clean up, also helps to plan Family Fun Night
- Recruitment Team: find those who are eager and willing to volunteer
- In-Kind Donations Team: helps manage resources and meal donations

#3

Donate a Meal

- Donate once or many times
- Donate dinner for the Nebo, American Fork, or Provo site meeting
- Great opportunity for families or small groups

#4

Volunteer with the Children's Programs

- Take care of participants' children during the weekly Circles meeting
- Two hours per week
- Four month commitment
- Dinner provided
- Lots of fun!
